

Bed and Breakfast in Northern Italy

*€15 discount per room per night based on 2 sharing, includes breakfast. (Offer does not include August)

Casa di Antonio is an English run bed and breakfast set in the heart of the Emilia Romagna region, and an ideal base for our visitors who wish to experience the real life and culture of Italy. Tony & Karen run Casa di Antonio and have built up good background knowledge of the best places to visit. We have dedicated pages on our website to local places of interest in the Po Delta (see places to visit page on our website)

Venice, Bologna, Verona, Ravenna, The Delta Po, Comacchio and the local beaches on the Adriatic are all situated close to the B&B. Lake Garda, Florence and Modena are within driving distance and are perfectly situated for a day trip.

Casa di Antonio is in a tranquil position for those who wish to chill out for the day in the garden or if you wish, you can borrow the bikes and go around all the country lanes, stopping in the small local villages for cafe or gelato. We have a variety of local restaurants within the vicinity, or you can have dinner at Casa di Antonio or have pizza delivered and sit out under the barn and enjoy the warm evenings.

We are situated in the province of Ferrara (a UNESCO world heritage site), and within an hours drive from Bologna airport and 1 hour 20 mins from Venice airport. Easy Jet fly daily from Gatwick and the East Midlands to Venice. Ryanair fly daily from Stanstead and 3 times a week from Edinburgh to Bologna, they also fly 3 times a week from Bristol & Leeds Bradford to Venice Treviso. British Airways fly up to 3 flights per day from Gatwick to Bologna and Venice and BMIBaby fly from East Midlands to Venice.

If any of your friends or family would like to discover this wonderful area, we will offer a discount of 15 euro per night on our advertised rates based on 2 sharing during 2010 (This offer does not include August). This includes breakfast of homemade breads, pastries and preserves and fresh fruit in season.
